PEARL PROBE PLANS TO CALL MARSHALL

U. S. Might Aiding Reds, Says Hurley

WASHINGTON, NovZ 28—(U. P.)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes declared today that Patrick J. Hurley would have had the State Department's complete backing if he had continued in his post as U. S. Ambassador to China.

By JOHN A. REICHMANN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(I. N. S.)—Major Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, who resigned yesterday as Ambassador to China with explosive charges of duplicity among American foreign service officers, declared today America's strength is being used to support Communism and imperialism.

Hurley, in an address before the National Press Club, asserted the policy-making machinery of the United States is divided against itself, and charged:

"The hydra-headed direction of foreign policy in Washington during the war has failed completely to couple American logistics with American foreign policy."

PROBE APPEARS CERTAIN

As a result of Hurley's blistering charges, a Congressional investigation of American diplomacy appeared certain today.

Hurley declared the ideals and objectives for which America fought the second World War had been undermined.

Hurley quoted former Secretary of State Cordell Hull's peace proposal to Japan November 26, 1941, in which Japan was asked to agree that:

"The Government of the United States and the Government of Japan will not support—militarily, politically, economically—any Government or regime in China other than the National Government of the Republic of China with capital temporarily at Chungking."

Hurley pointed out:

"The United States decided to

Traitor Amery Is Sentenced To Die

LONDON, Nov. 28—(I. N. S.). Eight minutes after John Amery pleaded guilty today to charges of treason, the son of a former British Secretary of State for India was sentenced to death. Amery, accused on eight counts of collaboration with the Nazis, pleaded guilty on all counts.

3 U. S. Nazi Prosecutors Quit Trials

NUERNBERG, Nov. 28—(U. N. S.). — A virtual "palace revolution" broke out today among American attorneys prosecuting Nazi Germany's 20 leading war criminals. Among those withdrawing from the case were Maj. Gen. William J. Donovan, Col. Howard Brundage and Col. Murray Gurfein.

NUERNBERG, Nov. 28—(A.P.). Rudolf Hess, Hitler's one-time deputy, was described by psychiatrists today as "not insane at the present time in the strict sense of the word."

The international military tribunal announced arguments would be heard Friday on the Nazi leader's plea to escape the war crimes trial on grounds of amnesia.

The British psychiatrists' report revealed that Hess had tried to commit suicide on several occasions since his sensational and mysterious flight to Scotland in May, 1941.

Declaring that Hess was not insane, the psychiatrists conceded that his loss of memory would "interfere with his ability to make his defense."

PLOT FOR AUSTRIA

As today's session opened the prosecution presented evidence from an American diplomat that the Nazis schemed from their earliest days of power to absorb Austria.

The charge that Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering and others of the 20 top Nazi leaders on trial openly spoke of annexing Austria to the Reich was made in an affidavit by George S. Messersmith, former U. S. Minister to Austria and now Ambassador to Mexico.

Hitler's lightning invasion of Austria in March, 1938, represented the "flowering of the Fifth Column," declared Assistant U. S. Prosecutor Sidney S. Alderman, who declared the Fuehrer's plans for acquisition of the country were shown on the first page of "Mein Kampf."

DEFENSE CHALLENGES

Introduction of Messersmith's affidavit was challenged by German defense counsel, who contended the diplomat should appear in person to testify rather than file a statement.

Lord Justice Sir Geoffrey Lawrence, presiding, ruled the affidavit would be accepted and that Messersmith could be called.

Seeks To Quiz General Before He Leaves For China As U. S. Envoy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(U. P.).—Representative Frank B. Keefe (Republican) of Wisconsin asked the Pearl Harbor Investigating Committee today to get all communications between the late President Roosevelt and former British Prime Minister Winston Church from November 24 to December 7, 1941. Committee Counsel William O. Mitchell said the search would be made.

By WILLIAM THEIS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(I. N. S.).—The Pearl Harbor Investigating Committee indicated today that Gen. George C. Marshall may be called as a witness before he departs for Chungking on his new assignment as Ambassador to China.

As former Tokyo Ambassador Joseph C. Grew resumed testimony before the Congressional committee, Senate Majority Leader Barkley, chairman, reported the group was checking on how Marshall's surprise appointment might affect the committee agenda.

Committee counsel also said they were determining whether Marshall's appointment to succeed Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley would necessitate calling him as a witness sooner than expected.

Representative Keefe (Republican) of Wisconsin told reporters he would insist that the general testify before he leaves Washington.

Keefe commented:

"We certainly don't want to find ourselves with a major witness in Chungking."

TALKS TO TRUMAN

Marshall conferred with President Truman at the White House this morning.

His appointment and the diplomatic blow-off that accompanied Hurley's resignation came as a surprise to most committee members.

Meanwhile the inquiry proceeded with Grew as a witness after former Secretary of State Cordell Hull failed to appear because of the rainy weather.

Barkley had urged Hull yesterday to rest for several days and announced this morning that because of the downpour of rain it was decided not to have the ailing ex-Secretary leave his home today.

JAP PROPAGANDA

Grew told the committee that Japanese military leaders deliberately created the impression among their people in November and December, 1941, that Hull's November 26 proposal was "an ultimatum."

Under questioning by Senator Ferguson (Republican) of Michigan, Grey noted that in November he warned Washington that Japan might strike without first declaring war—that they would probably exploit all advantages, including surprise.

When Hull returns to the stand he will be asked point-blank if he or the late President Roosevelt received any information on December 6, 1941 indicating that a Jap attack was aimed at Pearl Harbor.

Steel Workers Staging Record Strike Vote

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 28 — (U. P.).—Heavy balloting in the first hours today indicated that more than a half million C. I. O. United Steel Workers in 27 States will vote on whether to strike for a $2-a-day wage increase.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(A. P.).—One Government agency sought ways to settle the General Motors labor dispute today while another undertook the biggest strike poll on record, among 700,000 steelworkers.

The U. S. Conciliation Service arranged a conference with Walter P. Reuther, vice-president of the C. I. O. Auto Workers and associates to discuss the union's position in the General Motors Corporation walkout.

The auto workers struck a week ago to back up their demand—a 30 per cent wage increase. Their objective is to offset loss in take-home pay caused by the change-over from a 48 to 40-hour week.

C. I. O. steelworkers laid the

Private Atomic Research Urged

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(A. P.).—Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves urged today that the supervision and development of atomic energy be placed under a special commission independent of any existing Government agency.

He told the Senate Atomic Energy Committee:

"It is essential, in the highest national interest, that further development in the field of atomic energy be pursued under controls which will preclude the utilization of atomic energy in a way which would imperil the national safety or endanger world peace."

CAN BE SEPARATED

Domestic control can and should be separated from international control, the Senators were told by the head of the [illegible] secret "Manhattan project" [illegible] developed the bomb. He explained:

Groves said the commission should have "complete authority over all activities in the field, subject only to the control of Congress and the President."

It should be composed of persons of recognized ability and should be given broad discretionary powers, he added.

He remarked that because of the current uncertainty, key persons whose services should be retained are being lost to the work.

China Reds Fire On U. S. Gunboat; Yanks Hit Back

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 28—(U. P.).—Communist forces in this country were blamed today by Major Gen. Claire L. Chennault for magnifying the importance of China's civil war.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 28—(U. P.).—American naval headquarters announced today that the American patrol vessel 134 was fired upon yesterday, presumably by Communists, while on convoy duty in the Yangtze River.

Rear Admiral Charles T. Joy, commander of the Yangtze patrol, said the craft was fired upon by small arms from the shore at a point eight miles above Kichau while in a small convoy returning from Hankow.

The craft returned the fire with its 20-millimeter cannon. There were no American casualties.

Churchill Warns:

Socialists May Destroy Britain

By CHARLES A. SMITH

LONDON, Nov. 28—(I. N. S.). Winston Churchill today virtually "declared war" on all British Socialists and warned the nation that "Socialist theories can destroy Britain more surely than U-boats or any other form of warfare."

Speaking at a conference of the Conservative Central Council, the great British war-time leader characterized the recent general election which deposed him as "one of the greatest disasters which has smitten this country in its long and checkered history."

ATTACKS BEVAN

Churchill bitterly attacked Aneurin Bevan and Sir Stafford Cripps. Bevan is Minister of Health and Cripps president of the board of trade in Prime Minister Clement Attlee's Cabinet.

He referred to Cripps as a "great advocate of strength through misery." Churchill declared:

"I prefer strength through victory."

London evening newspapers featured Churchill's speech as a declaration of war on the Socialists.

CALLED FOOLISH ERROR

Churchill said there was "no reason" why his party should not lead Britain out of "this foolish lapse or error." He continued:

"Dangers lie about us on every side which, if not overcome and defeated, will cramp and press the British nation down to standards never contemplated, and rob us not only of our place in the world but also of reasonable prosperity and freedom of all classes."

Churchill said that Britain was being "harassed, hampered, harried, tied down and stifled" for "vague and physically-unobtainable plans for Socialist future."

Balti...orn 'Haw...Set For V...ar Trial

SHANGHAI, Nov. 28—(A. P.). A staff of 50 U. S. officers is preparing for prosecution by mid-December of 50 alleged war criminals in custody in Shanghai.

Col. Edward H. Young, Washington, D. C., judge advocate, said today the 50 included Don Chisholm, Baltimore, Md., accused of propagandizing for the Japanese during their occupation of Shanghai.

An American citizen, he may be returned to the United States for trial.

Thirty-five Japanese among the prisoners are charged with participation in the torture, parade and cremation of three U. S. fliers at Hankow last December.

More arrests are expected. There are no war criminal suspects of Cabinet rank held here, Colonel Young said, explaining that the prisoners for the most part will be tried for "their own inhuman acts," including atrocities against American captives.

Accused Chisholm Is Baltimore-Born

Robert Don Chisholm, Baltimore-born Shanghai newspaper and radio man, has been called by U. S. military police as the "American Lord Haw Haw of the Orient" for his alleged broadcasts which they said he made during the Japanese occupation of Shanghai.

He was originally arrested early last September but was released pending further investigation of suspected collaboration with the Nipponese, according to dispatches.

He was rearrested last October 30. According to intelligence officers Chisholm, who went to Shanghai in 1930 and was interned by the Japs in 1942, began broadcasting propaganda for the Japs soon after their occupation of Shanghai.

Patton, In Stockholm, Visits King

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 28—(I. N. S.)—Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., arrived in Stockholm today for a belated Thanksgiving Day celebration.

He was met on his arrival from Copenhagen by Count Folke Bernadotte, president of the Swedish Red Cross.

The gay welcoming reception was followed by a formal visit to King Gustav and Crown Prince Gustav Adolf at the royal palace.

A huge crowd turned out to welcome the colorful general, as well known in Stockholm as anywhere else in the world as "Two-gun George" and "Old Blood and Guts."

General Patton greeted many Swedish athletes whom he had met and known in previous years. A little girl gave him a bunch of flowers. He picked her up and kissed her on both cheeks.

...mashita Takes Stand To Deny Horror Orders

MANILA, Nov. 28—(U. P.)—Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita testified in his defense today that he did not order the destruction of Manila and swore he "absolutely" did not order the killing of civilian or prisoners of war.

As the "Tiger of Malaya" protested innocence before the military commission trying him the Philippines Supreme Court denied his habeas corpus petition challenging General MacArthur's authority to order war crimes trials.

QUIT MANILA

Yamashita testified he decided in mid-December, 1944, not to defend Manila and ordered his troops to take to the hills to fight a delaying action.

The attacks on the city, he inferred, were committed by navy troops not under his command. He added:

"I was not supreme commander in the Philippines. It was Terauchi (Field Marshal Count Juichi Terauchi, commander in chief of the southern regions). I stayed under Terauchi's command until August, 1945.

PROTECTED PRISONERS

"Tokyo ordered the transfer of war prisoners to Japan and release of the remainder if United States forces neared.

Captain Kramer Will Testify:

U. S. Knew Hour Japs Would Hit

By RAY RICHARDS
News-Post Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—A brief of testimony promised soon at the Pearl Harbor Congressional hearing of Capt. Alwin D. Kramer, Navy Intelligence Service courier in Washington on the eve of the disaster, contradicts in a vital particular yesterday's testimony of former Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Hull's statement that only the "general situation" regarding the Japanese crisis was discussed at a meeting in the State Department at 10 A. M., Washington time, December 7, 1941, three hours before the Japanese hit Pearl Harbor, caused Representative Frank B. Keefe, Wisconsin Republican, to reveal the testimony Kramer is scheduled to give.

Its point, according to Keefe, is that the officials at the meeting actually had before them the complete text of an intercepted and decoded radio final message from Tokyo which, received during the night, carried the clear implication that a Japanese raid would start on Pearl Harbor at sunrise time there, 1 P. M. Washington time.

WARNING DELAYED

No warning was sent to Pearl Harbor until after the noon hour. It was dispatched by ordinary commercial cable and was not delivered until seven hours after the attack had ended.

Keefe and another minority committee member, Representative Bertrand W. Gearhart, California Republican, charge that such pressure has been exerted on Captain Kramer to make him change his testimony that he is confined in Bethesda Naval Hospital in Maryland on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

The message from Tokyo was the diplomatic note Japanese envoys were instructed to deliver to the State Department at 1 P. M., ending negotiations.

POINTS TO STATEMENT

For official confirmation of the time of its reception Keefe turned to a statement this year at a session of the Army board of inquiry by a member of the board, Major Gen. Henry D. Russell:

"It has come to our attention that on Saturday night, December 6, probably as early as 9 P. M., 13 of the 14 sections of the Japanese reply to our memorandum of November 26 were in our possession and translated and ready for delivery."

The fourteenth unimportant section arrived later in the night.

Captain Kramer was chosen to deliver the message to high officials.

SOUGHT NAVAL ATTACHE

He visited the White House first, shortly after 9 P. M. Protocol required that he transmit his information to the President through the White House naval attache. The attache was attending a dinner party elsewhere, and Kramer sought him out.

Kramer, Keefe said, will testify that he was told by naval officers at the dinner that the news already had been received and that "the situation is being met by men higher up."

Defense Lawyer Contends:

Mrs. Mansfeldt Under Drug Spell

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28—(U. P.).—"Somnolentia," a weird, half-waking state of the mind, was projected today as the condition of Mrs. Annie Irene Mansfeldt when she killed a suspected rival for her husband's affections.

Defense Attorney Vincent Hallinan, in his opening remarks to a jury of seven women and five men hearing the murder trial, yesterday portrayed his client as a good wife and mother whose married life was haunted by the "specter of hereditary insanity."

Over prosecution objections, Hallinan outlined the strange, twisted relationship between the late Dr. John H. Mansfeldt and his wife and described what he said was her drug-induced state when she shot and killed Mrs. Vada Martin of Baltimore, Md.

INTOXICATED BY DRUGS

The lawyer said:

"We do not claim justifiable homicide. We are not invoking any unwritten law . . . It is our contention that Mrs. Mansfeldt was intoxicated, not by liquor but by drugs involuntarily taken."

Hallinan said that Dr. Mansfeldt had given his wife a strong sedative and "two pills with a sweet liquid" the night before she killed the attractive thirty-six-year-old nurse with a revolver "she hadn't the vaguest idea how to load or operate."

ABNORMAL SLEEP

The drug, Hallinan said, "produced a profound, unwelcome sleep for Mrs. Mansfeldt—a sleep so abnormal it tore loose the structure of her subconscious mind, which, like Pandora's box, had been storing away the terror and horror and fears of countless years."

Hallinan continued:

"When she awaked in the morning she was suffering from a condition somnolentia, in which she gave the aspects of consciousness but actually was only semiconscious."

give its full support to the National Government of China. This policy was weakened by the fact that some of our career men in the State Department were supporting the Communist armed party. Others were supporting the Imperialist bloc."

I "FICULT ASSIGNMENT

The ex-Ambassador referred to his assignment to China by the late Pr sident Roosevelt as "the most intricate and difficult assignment of my life." Opposition of "most of the career diplomats" placed constant obstacles in his path, he said.

Despite the opposition, Hurley said he succeeded in bringing together Chiang Kai-shek and Mao Tze-tung, Communist leader, and in preventing civil war as long as he remained in China.

Hurley made public for the first time the fact that early in his mission he had an understanding with the Russian Government in regard to a rapprochement between the Soviet Union and China. He explained:

"Russia has said from the beginning that the Chinese Communists are not in fact Communists at all, that Russia has not supported the Chinese Communists, that Russia does support the National Government of China and the leadership of Chiang Kai-shek, that Russia desires closer and more harmonious relations with China."

Russia and Britain—"but not the imperialist civil servants of Britain and Asia"—supported the policy of unifying all anti-Japanese military forces in China and of supporting aspirations of the Chinese toward a democratic government, Hurley said.

French and Netherlands Imperialists did not support the policy, he added.

M'Arthur Part In M'Nider Case Told

TOKYO, Nov. 28—(A. P.)—General MacArthur relayed to Marine Corps headquarters a request by Brig. Gen. Hanford MacNider that his son, Pfc. Jack MacNider, be permitted to return home from Tokyo, but MacArthur has no knowledge of young MacNider's discharge, a headquarters spokesman said today.

The spokesman made public this exchange of radio messages involving Private MacNider, whose return and discharge with 38 points, Marine Corps headquarters said, were "in accordance with the radio request of General MacArthur":

To Gen. A. A. Vandegrift, Marine Corps commandant:

"MacNider very anxious to bring his son, Pfc. Jack MacNider, Fifth Marine Division, now on furlough in Tokyo, back with him to United States to continue his medical schooling. If you can authorize such procedure be glad arrange air transportation for return with his father to United States, where he will report any station you may designate."

The reply:

"Procedure outlined is authorized. Please direct Pfc. Jack MacNider report Marine Barracks Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., duty, and grant him 30 days' delay en route if he so desires."

MacArthur has no administration over Marine Corps personnel, and the message exchange speaks for itself, the headquarters spokesman commented.

Iran Troops Await Rebels Near Capital

TEHRAN, Nov. 28—(A. P.).—Iranian Government forces were under orders today to defend the capital at all costs against an insurgent military force marching toward the city from the north.

The government announced another insurgent column had occupied the rail town of Takistan, 85 miles northwest of Tehran.

The government said the vanguard of this force was driving on Kazvin and was expected to reach it by nightfall.

Confirmation was given by the government to earlier reports that another insurgent column had occupied all of Zenjan, a rail station 170 miles northwest of the capital.

The government said Astara, Caspian Sea port on the Iranian-Soviet border, also was occupied by the insurgents.

Government sources believed the Azerbaijans would stop at Kazvin, but feared the arrival of the insurgents there might be a signal for sympathizers and "armed strangers" in the capital to start a rebellion.

Truth On... Withheld Jap Notes

By JOHN T. FLYNN
(Written Expressly for ... Newspapers) ...e Hearst
(Copyright, 1945, by the Journal-American, New York)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—Joseph C. Grew, pre-Pearl Harbor Ambassador to Japan, despite a seemingly fruitless grilling by Senator Ferguson, made a notable contribution to a phase of the Pearl Harbor story almost as important as the attack itself—the careful suppression of the truth by the Roosevelt Administration.

Grew's studied flight from making direct answers is hard to understand. His own record as American Ambassador was made clear by him in a book.

Generally speaking it is not a bad record. His painful resistance to making frank answers to questions could only tend to identify him with a historic bungle for which he was not in fact liable.

CHANGED HIS MIND

Grew decided back in 1938 that there were men and interests in Japan which could be appealed to and stimulated to action for peace. We believed there were men in Japan who were convinced that a war with America would destroy Japan.

Then in 1940—September—he changed his mind. He wrote a long letter to the State Department that he was convinced we must pursue a policy of relentless pressure upon Japan. This he felt should be carried on through economic sanctions of some sort.

The State Department published a book revealing—allegedly— all the important documents in the dealings of the United States with Japan. This was printed in 1943. But this letter of Grew which he had called the most important he ever sent from the embassy was omitted—suppressed.

DIPLOMACY FAILED

Then in December, 1940, Grew wrote the President saying diplomacy had failed in Japan—that a headlong clash with her was inevitable that it was not a question of whether we would have it but when, and the time to have it was now.

He tried to wriggle out of the solemn fact that he was advising a course which would mean war. But his own words were against him. He said a "policy short of war" without the intention of following it up with the intention to fight would be futile.

This letter was omitted from the so-called State papers on Japan published by Hull in 1943. Did Hull know of the letter?

And did he know of the reply sent to Grew by the President saying he agreed with him. In any case these documents were suppressed until Grew printed them in his own book—ten years in Japan.

ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE

On August 17, 1941, after the Atlantic conference the President sent a message to Japan saying in effect that if she took another step in the Pacific he would act. Grew admitted he had never heard of it. And that message too was suppressed until this investigation.

Yet on November 1, 1941, a naval officer reporting to the State Department referred to this message of August 17 as an ultimatum. It is incredible that such a document should have been withheld from our Ambassador in Japan.

Seek Wrecked Plane, 13 Fliers In Woods

COOS BAY, Ore., Nov. 28—(U. P.)—A rescue party set out in the midst of a heavy storm today following incoherent directions from two Army fliers who stumbled out of the wilderness last night with a story of a large cargo plane crash with 15 men aboard.

The fliers reportedly wandered for two days in the rugged Coos Bay forest country before reaching a lumber camp, 14 miles from here, where they told loggers that 13 of their buddies were dead or near death in the wreckage of an Army plane.

State police were unable to establish contact with the camp but the Coos Bay Times reported that a rescue mission of doctors, nurses and loggers had left late last night for the scene of the crash.

Renner May Be Austria's President

VIENNA, Nov. 28—(U. P.)—Dr. Karl Renner, aged Socialist, who was chancellor of the Austrian provisional government, may become state president, while Leonard Figl, leader of the victorious People's party, becomes chancellor, political sources said today.

BOY SURVIVES BUS TRAGEDY
TRAGEDY BUS HUNTED—Diver Spud O'Donnell, United States Reclamation Service, emerges after going down in the 200 feet of water in Lake Chelan, Wash., searching for the bus which crashed and sunk Monday, drowning 15 children and the driver. Bob Watson, eight, is shown with the heavy clothes he was wearing when he broke through a window of the bus and swam to safety.

More New Tires For Old Cars Forecast

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(A. P.)—Car owners who need new tires get a break from strikes in new car plants.

And it seems likely tire rationing will end early in 1946. It will if production meets Government hopes.

The Government is not going to wait to end rationing until there are enough tires to meet all demands.

New car makers can't build stocks of new tires larger than will be needed within 15 days.

Since strikes and bottlenecks cut down new car production the auto makers' need for new tires is less. Thus—more new tires for old cars.

Eventually, this works in reverse. When new car output picks up they will gobble up new tires. Then—less for old cars.

Md. Tire Quota Up For December

The OPA announced an increase of 342 tires in Maryland's December passenger tire quota, but simultaneously dampened motorists' hopes by announcing it has a backlog of some 2,000 applications which could not be honored last month for lack of quota.

The December quota is 34,206, that for November 33,864.

Next month's quota of small truck tires has decreased from 4,354 in November 3,630. The large truck tire quota for December is increased to 2,858 from November's 2,754.

Truman Names Halsey For 5 Stars

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(A. P.). Forty-four war veterans have been assigned to street patrol in a step to strengthen the New York Police Department during a mounting crime wave.

Java Rebels In West Ask For Truce

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 28—(A. P.)—The Indonesian Governor of Western Java asked the British command today to halt military action at Bandoeng.

He was told Nationalist forces must evacuate the residential area by noon tomorrow.

In the midst of a tense situation in the summer capital the Javanese Governor approached British headquarters in Bandoeng under a white flag, an official British statement said.

Earlier, strong Allied patrols had been ordered out in Bandoeng, about 75 miles southeast of Batavia, to disperse Indonesians who were gathering in the city.

A British brigade commander told the Javanese Governor any Indonesians found there after noon tomorrow were liable to be shot by British patrols.

Guns of a British destroyer shelled Oenganan, midway between Ambarawa and Semarang.

Nationalist reinforcements were reported on the move toward both Ambarawa and embattled Soerabaja.

Detail Escape Of Roosevelt Ship

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(A. P.)—The Navy acknowledged today the battleship Iowa escaped—while carrying President Roosevelt to the 1943 Cairo conference—being hit by a torpedo fired accidentally from a U. S. destroyer. A Navy spokesman told a newsman the torpedo, from the destroyer William D. Porter, exploded astern of the Iowa. The battleship was not damaged and there were no injuries to personnel.

Modified Training Is Aim Of Legion

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 28—(U.P.)—The American Legion's primary objective in 1946 will be Congressional adoption of a modified military training program, John Steele, newly-elected national commander, said today.

GRAND (PIANO) LARCENY

BOSTON, Nov. 28—(A. P.)—Thieves using a block and fall stole a grand piano from the third floor of Michale Kostecki's lodging house, he reported to police. They found it in a second-hand shop, where it had been sold for $10.

World Crime Wave Rolls Across Europe

LONDON, Nov. 28—(U. P.)—Military and civilian police in half a dozen capitals today were trying to smash a crime wave involving youths of high school age, rolling across Europe in the wake of war.

From Allied and former enemy territory alike came reports of murders, robberies, disorders and juvenile delinquency which were growing in number as cold weather struck the damaged and often heatless cities.

SPECIAL PATROLS

Mounted policemen are making nightly rounds of Moscow's side streets and armed militia patrols have been increased.

Attempts by Paris newspapers to blame the growing crime wave in the French capital upon American soldiers were denied by the American provost marshal's office.

London has been afflicted by a growth of lawlessness. Scotland Yard has reinforced street patrols and is putting more radio patrol cars onto the streets at night.

Bus Tragedy Spoils Village Yule Plans

FIRST CREEK, Wash., Nov. 28 (U. P.)—This Central Washington rural community today tacitly abandoned plans for a gala Christmas. Christmas is a child's paradise. And nearly all the hamlet's school-age children lay dead in Lake Chelan.

There could be no thought of celebration as divers continued their probing for a school bus in which 15 youngsters and the driver went to death last Monday.

Only five children and a woman passenger escaped.

The Navy today was taking over after divers from Grand Coulee Dam and Seattle reported they believed the vehicle was under 300 feet of water in the huge peak-ringed lake, maximum depth of which is unplumbed in many places.

Reclamation divers, unable with limited equipment to go below 200 feet, worked yesterday taking soundings to provide the Navy men with data.

First Creek, Lakeside and Twenty-five Mile Creek, all tiny rural communities near the small city of Chelah, were in mourning. The Chelan City Hall was prepared to serve as a morgue should the bodies be found.

Memorial services were planned at Chelan Consolidated School, where many of the children were bound when the accident occurred.

Britain E... U. S. Cu...back On Planes

By JOSEPH A. BORS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—(I. N. S.)—A study of postwar plane production programs in America and abroad disclosed today that Great Britain now has nearly one million persons employed in aircraft industries while cut-backs in the United States have reduced workers in that category to 146,238.

The British program was revealed in data turned out by the Society of British Aircraft Constructions, Ltd., in which that country's aircraft expansion program was discussed. The society's bulletin said:

"In fact, by next month (December) the total output of civil aircraft will be nearly 50 a month and by June of next year will be more than 70 a month.

"These are not the only orders helping to keep employed the 900,000 workers employed in the British aircraft industry. Manufacture of military types is still going on apace, orders for these totaling more than 10,000 aircraft."

In contrast the Army and Navy have placed orders with American firms for a total of 2,200 combat planes to be delivered in 1946, and a total of only 5,000 to be turned out between now and June, 1948.

Unity Delay Held Costly By Arnold

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(U. P.). American taxpayers are continuing to pay for delay in unifying the country's armed strength under a single command, General of the Army H. H. Arnold declared last night.

General Arnold spoke at a dinner which Gen. Carl A. Spaatz (U. S. A. A. F.) gave in honor of Hugh Baillie, president of the United Press, returned from a tour of the Pacific area.

The delay in unifying America's fighting forces is not only expensive, General Arnold declared, but is causing thousands of able Americans to leave the service.

Jap... ...ames Tojo ... oye Top War C...minals

TOKYO, Nov. 2...—(A. P.)—Prince Fumimaro K...noye, former Premier, was named from the floor of the Japanese House of Representatives today as one of two men "fundamentally responsible for the war."

The boisterous house also heckled freely melancholy Premier Baron Kijuro Shidehara after his "state of the nation" speech to the Diet.

Takao Saito, seventy-five-year-old parliamentarian, asserted Kenoye and Pearl Harbor Premier Hideki Tojo were responsible for the war, adding:

"The Japanese people hate these men more than anyone else."

LAUGHS FOR CABINET

Representatives laughed aloud as Shidehara attempted to answer questions on constitutional and other reforms, betraying an increasing sharpness toward Shidehara's unstable cabinet.

Throughout the first two hours of the interrogation questions were devoted almost exclusively to the war, with heavy emphasis on war responsibility.

Shidehara, in his outline of Japan's paramount problems, declared the path to final restoration of peace "is still long."

CALLS FOR ELECTIONS

The Premier, whose Cabinet is foredoomed to collapse on conclusion of this Diet session, said Japan, having accepted the Potsdam declaration, was obliged to remove all obstacles to a revival of development of democratic tendencies among its people.

He reminded the Diet it must reflect the public will and "for that purpose there must be full and fair election."

Italy Trying To Pick New Premier

ROME, Nov. 28—(U. P.)—The committee of national liberation meets today in an effort to agree on a successor to Premier Col. Feruccio Parri whose Government resigned Saturday. Solution of the political crisis was turned over to the committee after secretaries of the six-party coalition—three right and three left—came to a deadlock in a meeting last night.

Re... Share Guilt Of War Criminals

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND
Dean of American Foreign Correspondents.
(Written Expressly for the Hearst Newspapers.)

MADRID, Nov. 28.—The movement for a super-world government, curtailing the sovereignty of the people and with its limitations of national independence, has been launched.

The advocates of the super-world government with a super-world judiciary above the laws of the individual nations, with governments of the world responsible to the super-world "council" and with an army and police to enforce its authority, have boldly emerged from their camouflaged cover.

REMINDER OF 1917

As in 1917 the fanatical teetotalers and anti-alcoholists in a nationwide propaganda wave of agitation took advantage of the first World War to put over the prohibition law—later to be bitterly regretted and repealed—so now worldwide revulsion to war—the appalling miseries in war's aftermath and the horror of the atomic bomb—are being mobilized by the visionaries to put over their scheme for a super-world government system, with deluding promises that it will, for all time, end war.

In the British House of Commons last Friday both Foreign Secretary Bevin and former Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, called for a "world assembly, world judiciary and world police," all of them units and branches of the super-world government.

PROCEDURE AT NUERNBERG

In Nuernberg there is being laid the initial brick of the cornerstone that the new jurisprudence and world judiciary called for by the advocates of a super-government.

There are two questions in Nuernberg.

The first is that of the moral guilt of the accused Nazi leaders. And there can be little doubt of that guilt.

The second is that of the fundamental principles of law and of the legality of the trials and of the Allied Four-Power court, in which sits totalitarian Communist Russia, an accomplice and co-conspirator, guilty with the Nazi German leaders in the invasion and rape of Poland and many of the other war crimes charged against the Nazis.

LOUD PROFESSIONS

Advocates of the various forms of super-world government loudly proclaim that the "new world" will have the "rule of law."

Jurists say that the fundamental practices and principles of law of all civilized countries since Roman days are that:

No one can be both prosecutor and judge.

Judge and jury must be unbiased and unprejudiced.

No accomplice in crime may sit as judge.

SEE PRINCIPLES VIOLATED

These and other fundamental principles are violated by the Nuernberg tribunal, according to eminent jurists.

Whether the enormity of the moral guilt of the Nazi leaders for the crimes charged against them, justifies trial without recognized law to satisfy world public opinion, is one thing.

That such precedents of ignoring or flagrantly violating fundamental law should become the cornerstone of jurisprudence of the super-world government is a far more serious matter.

AT YOUR SERVICE

Q. I was discharged September 1, 1945, and on October 1, 1945, received notice that my claim for disability pension had been approved by the Veterans' Administration. I have received no check and wonder when I may expect payment. Will it be for September, October or November—or when?
N. M. A.

A. We cannot predict when you will receive your first pension check, but since your claim for pension was filed within one year from date of discharge, it may be payable retroactively to the date of your discharge from active service. If there is more than three months' delay before you receive the pension check write to the Veterans' Administration office which handles your claim, asking how soon you may expect payment.

Q. My husband is thirty years old, has been in the Navy since April 11, 1945, has a son and myself as dependents and has had three months sea duty. How many points does he have?
MRS. R. F.

A. Your husband has 28¾ points. Points are cumulative for service time, but only full months count. Ten points are allowed for dependents (whose dependency existed as of August 15), regardless of number of dependents.

Q. What is the present age limit for registrants selected for induction.
B. G. T.

A. It is now eighteen through twenty-five years, except for volunteers. Volunteers for induction through Selective Service are being accepted by the armed forces, ages eighteen through thirty-four. (Volunteers thirty-five years or over are not acceptable through Selective Service).

Q. My mother-in-law has been getting a family allowance from a son who was discharged in October, 1945. How long will it be continued? If it stops immediately could my husband apply for the allowance of his mother?
MRS. H. G.

A. The effective date of termination of entitlement to a family allowance is as of the end of the month in which the serviceman is discharged. For example, if the serviceman is discharged at any time during November the final payment will be made in December. Your husband may apply for family allowance on behalf of his parent. Since he already is contributing $22 towards your family allowance he would need only to contribute $5 additional towards his mother's allowance if it is approved.

Q. Were extra points given to Army personnel for V-J Day?
MRS. J. M.

A. No extra points were given to men for V-J Day; however, men overseas were allowed to credit eight points for the time between May 12 (V-E Day) and September 2 (V-J Day); one point each for the four months of service between those dates and one point each for the four months of overseas duty between those dates.

Answers will be furnished to questions on family allowances, allotments, compensation claims, demobilization, hospitalization, vocational training, re-employment, educational rights, insurance, pensions, loans, civil service preference rights, income tax deferments, soldiers and sailors civil relief, veterans' organization, legislation—anything pertaining to the needs and welfare, rights and privileges of servicemen and women, veterans and their dependents.

...OUNDS With J. Hammond

Hunting pr... in Maryland's small game is ... acknowledged to be far beyond ... thing anticipated by the offici... of the State Department of Game and Inland Fish.

For many months it was predicted that hunting pressure would increase, that it would eventually show a jump of some 30 per cent over the prewar years, but it was believed that this increase would be spread out over several years.

However, here in Maryland the increase has come all at once and there is every indication that there will be a heavy jump in number of licenses sold, an increase already reaching 20 per cent and still soaring. In fact, so heavy has the demand for licenses been that the department has been unable to keep its agents supplied. They prepared for an increase but for nothing like what has materialized.

DOESN'T TELL STORY

This increase of license sales does not tell the whole story. Now that the pressure of war jobs has been somewhat removed, gunnermen who are able to take to the hunting field only occasionally during the war years are finding themselves with both the money and time needed to indulge themselves to their heart's content.

They are taking advantage of this state of affairs and as a consequence Maryland's small game is taking a beating, and starting next Monday a veritable army of gunners will take the field in Garrett, Allegany and Worcester counties in search of deer.

There is nothing the State officials can do about it, but the sportsmen themselves can and should mitigate the pressure. For instance, there are large numbers of immature quail and rabbits in the fields and coverts. Why not pass these up and permit them to become brood stock?

BREAK IN WEATHER

Hunters of small game have had a wonderful break in the weather so far, and if this persists the State's quail stock is going to be depleted to such a point that it will be absolutely necessary to reduce the daily bag limit next year.

As for wild turkey, they are being reduced to such a bare minimum that it will be necessary to close the season on this royal bird next year.

The State's rabbit crop is being hard hit, but this species can make a comeback despite the increased pressure if proper game management methods are used between now and next year's open season.

It is all up to the sportsman himself. He holds the future of small game hunting for the next few years in his hands. What is he going about it?

BENEFIT DANCE

A benefit dance, sponsored by St. Mary's Guild of Sherwood Parish, will be held Friday evening in Firemen's Hall, Cockeysville. Proceeds from the sale of tickets, which may be purchased at the door, will be applied to a fund for the rebuilding of war-ravaged churches, schools and hospitals in the Philippines.

Dvori... Acclaimed In Concert At Lyric

By HELEN A. F. PENNIMAN

With his New York debut safely and successfully behind him, Shura Dvorine, the young Baltimore pianist, laid siege to his native stronghold at the Lyric last night. An audience of gratifying size and overwhelming friendliness brought Mr. Dvorine back to the stage for several curtain calls, after each group of compositions.

DYNAMIC PLAYING

As the central point of his program, the young artist chose the Appassionata Sonata of Beethoven, which gave occasion for a fine display of dynamics, as well as a dazzling digital facility. Similar powers were evident through the tremendous measures of the Bach-Taussig Toccata and Fugue in D-minor, and it is scarcely to be expected that a youth of twenty-two should have already under complete spiritual control all the heights and depths of these monumental inventions.

Mr. Dvorine interpreted with much sympathy, the brief and plaintive compositions by Scott Watson of Baltimore, who was present to share the applause.

VARIETY OF RANGE

The variety of the young pianist's range was evident in his delicacy of approach to the Scarlatti and the Debussy, the warm color of the Dohnanyi, and the Chavez.

A conflict of concert dates prevented our hearing the Chopin group, which was highly effective, we understand. Definitey, an up-and-coming young artist whose future should be closely followed.

Extreme Facial Pain Is Traced To Nerve Origin

By H. N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

IRRITATION of nerves usually leads to pain. There is one type of nerve irritation which causes severe pain in the face. The condition is known as tic douloureux but the exact cause of the disorder is not known.

However, Doctor Richard C. Karl and his co-workers of New York think that when the attacks occur, there is a lessening of the blood supply to the nerve in the face known as the trigeminal nerve. Doctor Karl thinks that this decrease in the blood supply is due to a constricting or narrowing of the blood vessels which supply the nerve with blood.

MODE OF TREATMENT

Hence, in treating the disorder, he concluded that the use of some substance which would dilate the blood vessels might be of value.

Doctor Karl carried out his study of seven patients. These patients found that chewing, talking, swallowing, shaving or drinking produced the painful attacks in the face. He found that the pain could be produced also by stimulating certain areas in the face.

ATTACKS INDUCED

In order to determine if the substances he used were of value, he would first produce the attacks of pain by stimulating these areas in the face. Then the various preparations were administered.

Doctor Karl found that the pain was diminished or eliminated in every patient by at least one of the substances.

BALTIMORE NEWS-POST

DIARY OF A MARYLAND HORSEWOMAN — By Elizabeth Ober

Dear Members of the Horse and Pony Clubs:

Next to the huntsman, the whipper-in can do the most to promote good sport. An efficient one can be of as great assistance to a huntsman as a good adjutant can be to a commanding officer.

He should be up when the huntsman wants him and obey his orders implicity and quickly. When a huntsman is riding to the headmost hounds, the whipper-in, if he is capable, can demonstrate it in the following ways.

By having the sense to distinguish where he is most needed. By keeping the tail hounds up and not leaving hounds behind in covert.

Two whipper-ins generally are necessary for when hounds divide and one lot goes away, the first whipper-in should step back and bring on the other lot as soon as he can. The second whipper-in should go on and keep within sight of the huntsman so as to be at his command.

Here are the last four verses of the poem, "Charlie the Whip," which is a favorite of mine. Bryce S. Wing sings it in that melodious voice of his at practically every one of the hunting parties.

Our field and the field where the hounds were
Was split by a whacking stiff rail,
An' by the best of fate, there wasn't a gate
So Charlie must have it or fail.

His mare was just about finished,
And she rose to the railing like lead.
Her knees struck it square, she turned in the air,
An' Charlie came down on his head.

Holding him up in a second
Then he says with a smile in his eyes:
"Yo-whoop, it's a kill in the open."
And with that he rolls over and dies.

Well—I've hunted in vast of crack countries
And I've ridden with rattling good men,
But if ever I see such another as he,
T'will be when I meet him again!

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT

And Stop Dosing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when it gets blocked it fails to digest properly.

What you want for real relief is not soda or an alkalizer—but something to "unblock" your intestinal tract. Something to clean it out effectively—help Nature get back on her feet.

Get Carter's Pills right now. Take them as directed. They gently and effectively "unblock" your digestive tract. This permits your food to move along normally. Nature's own digestive juices can then reach it. You get genuine relief that makes you feel really good again.

Get Carter's Pills at any druggist—25¢. "Unblock" your intestinal tract for real relief from indigestion.

Annette Advises Girl To Return To School

By ANNETTE

Dear Annette: I am eighteen years of age and have had almost two years of high school and one year of night school. I have been staying at home helping my mother for about two years, and would like your advice about what I should do. I would like to get out in the world and meet people and I would like to get a job and experience, but my father wants me to stay at home. My mother said that if she were in my place she would go out and work. I am so anxious to have my family proud of me and I would like to learn more. I want to speak well and have a large vocabulary. My brother suggests going back to school and getting more education. Can you help me in this?

UNDECIDED.

I am inclined to agree with your brother. You should at least have the equivalent of a high school education. You have ambition to learn, and know, I am sure, that by having a good foundation you can secure better jobs at higher salaries than you could with the amount of learning you have now. If you have been out of school for two years, you probably don't feel like going back in classes with sixteen-year-old girls, so why not go back to night school? In that way you could have a job, or at least a part-time job in the daytime, which would give you the outside contacts you want.

Dear Annette: For the past two years H and I have been dating each other steady. He is now twenty and in the service, and I am eighteen and a cadet nurse. In the past, for Christmas, graduation and my birthday, he has always given me very expensive gifts, and I would like to know if it is proper for a girl to give expensive presents for Christmas and how much I should spend on one.

BLONDE.

What you actually spend should depend a great deal on what you can afford to spend; but regardless of how much you can afford I think $10 should be the limit. It isn't considered good taste for a girl to give a young ents, presents of jewelry or presents, presents of jelewry or presents that are very personal.

BELLE BRUMMEL VIEWS TOWN AND COUNTRY

By ROSALIND WHITE

There are as many mink coats at the races as there are sorrel coats, bay coats, chestnut coats. The latter, of course, are on the horses . . . the minks are on the ladies, who in turn are on the horses, bettingly speaking.

Anybody who had a mink coat—and their number is legion—trotted it out for the races during the past nippy week. Mrs. Harry Parr III, pretty wife of the handsome president of the Maryland Jockey Club was in her box the other day in her mink coat, topped by a pearl-trimmed sapphire hat.

Mrs. John Edward Johnston wore a mink coat over her suit and so did Louise Brooks (Mrs. John Tennant). Her suit was grey and so was her rather large hat, but Ethel Hoffman was there the other day in the box with the Gary Blacks, both Ethel and Catherine wearing fur coats. Yep, you guessed it—they were mink. And so was Mrs. Romano Roman's handsome coat. She's the wife of Rosa Ponselle Jackson's voice instructor, and she completed her costume with a matching mink hat.

The famous Rosa slipped off the mink-wagon by appearing in a black Persian lamb coat. And so did Mrs. Sidney Zell. And so did Mrs. Josephine Reeder Hughes.

"HOW ABOUT TELEPHONES?"
Some, who are waiting for telephone service are asking, "Will I get a telephone soon?" We cannot yet answer how soon. For some the wait will still be long.
No two telephone systems are exactly alike. Each has to be especially designed and built for the area it serves. It takes time to plan, to manufacture and install switchboards, cables and other equipment that are needed here.
But — the peak of telephone shortages has about been reached. We are on our way to give service to all who want it. We are turning our facilities back to civilian service just as fast as we turned them to the instant needs of war.

Famous Cereal Brings Relief to Millions!

Constipated? Harsh drugs get you down? KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN gets at the common cause of much constipation—lack of bulk in the diet. If you suffer from this form of constipation, eat a dish of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every day and drink plenty of water. If you do this regularly, you may never have to take another laxative for the rest of your life!

KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative! It's a gentle-acting, regulating food . . . milled extra-fine for golden softness.

More Nutritious Than Whole Wheat

ALL-BRAN, made from the vital outer layers of finest wheat, contains a concentration of protective food elements found in this grain. One ounce of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN provides over 1/3 of your minimum daily need for iron—to help make good, red blood. Calcium and phosphorus—to help build bones and teeth. Whole-grain vitamins — to help guard against deficiencies. Protein—to help build body tissue essential to growth.

Group To Plan Polio Drive In State

Polio, dread crippler of innocent children, is in for a healthy sock from Baltimoreans determined to stamp it out.

As former Judge Eugene O'Dunne, State chairman, appealed to Marylanders to back Sister Elizabeth Kenny's campaign for $5,000,000 for expanded facilities, arrangements were being made to distribute several thousand polio collection cans in the city and counties.

These are to be placed in restaurants, hotels, taverns and other public gathering places.

A meeting of a tentative committee to formulate campaign plans will meet with Judge O'Dunne tomorrow afternoon.

Maryland's quota is $150,000, the campaign officially closing December 15.

Anne Kemp To Wed Robert D. Bartlett, Jr.

Making our habitual acknowledgment of the pleasures of a midweek wedding, we beg to place on official record a few details of the marriage of Anne Merryman Kemp and Robert Dixon Bartlett, Jr.

The ceremony is taking place at four o'clock this afternoon, at Woodridge Hall, the country home of the bride and her parents. Her father, Mr. Charles Thomas Kemp, Jr., is giving her in marriage.

Her sister, Agnes Hardey Kemp, is the maid of honor, with Capt. Lennox Dawbarn, Army Air Force, as best man for his half-brother. The Rev. Father R. M. Cartwright is officiating at the service.

As bridesmaids, there are Barbara Shriver, Olivia Evans and Augusta Boggs, with Faith Craig, of Manhattanville, N. Y.

As ushers, there are the bride's brother, Merryman Kemp; her cousin, Cary Jackson, and another half-brother of the groom, Ensign H. Dunlop Bowhers, U. S. N. R. Mr. and Mrs. Kemp have invited only the near relatives and closest friends of the two families to be present.

Mr. Bartlett was a student at Princeton before entering the Army, and only recently received his honorable discharge from the Air Corps.

The mail is rich in invitations just now, promising a holiday season well worthy of the Victory year. On Saturday, December 22, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Baker, Jr., will entertain at dinner in honor of their debutante cousins — Susan Ellen Baker, Catherine Baker Morgan and of Mary Ellen Sawyers—at the Mount Vernon Club.

The parents of Miss Baker and Miss Sawyers, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dill Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lazelle Sawyers of Centreville, Ohio, have sent out cards for a dinner dance for their daughters and for Mr. Baker's niece, Miss Morgan, at the Belvedere on December 28.

Mrs. Taylor Powers will entertain at luncheon at the Mount Vernon Club on December 27 for her daughter, Susan Taylor Powers. Mrs. Powers has taken an apartment in town for the winter months.

The Southern Maryland Society has sent out invitations for its annual dinner dance on Saturday of this week, December 1. This will be a specially festive Victory celebration, in prewar style, with a cocktail party preceding the dinner and a buffet supper after the dance.

A brief ceremony will be the annual election, with Dr. Amos F. Hutchins nominated as president, his officers nominated being Morton McI. Dukeharrt and Oden Bowie as vice-presidents, and C. Bowie Rose and Richard D. Stewart as secretary and treasurer. Governors from St. Mary's county will be George Blakiston and J. Edward Harrison; Edward Digges, from Charles, and B. Beale Sasscer, from Prince George's county.

The schoolmates of Evelyn Patterson at Greenwood School will be interested to learn of her engagement to William Linzee Prescott, son of Mrs. John Cecil Hayden of New York and the late W. B. Prescott of Boston.

Miss Patterson is the daughter of Frederick B. Patterson of Oracle, Ariz., and of Mrs. Robert Dickey, Jr., of Tuxedo Park. She is a sophomore at Vassar. Mr. Prescott, who is of Colonial ancestry, is a Groton graduate, and served two years as a paratrooper before being taken prisoner.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gordon Lyons have returned from Princeton, where they were entertained at the Ivy Club after the game by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gillespie.

PITFALLS OF LOVE

By ADELE GARRISON

I guessed that Dickey had winced at the idea, but, after all, it did not matter, and I knew that the thought of a hidden audience would spur him instead of hampering him, so I did not waste any sympathy on him.

"Of course, I don't mind," he said cordially. "Anywhere you wish."

"Then I think I'll take the bedroom," he said. "I'll turn the lights out and leave the door ajar. When she knocks, I'll slip into one of the closets, for fear she might take a notion to look into the bedroom. Then when she's settled, and talking, I can slip out again. I can be noiseless, you know."

"She'll never hear you," he said.

"I wouldn't bother," my father answered, "except to give me a line on what the wilderness woman is like when she gets really venomous."

He rose and walked toward the bedroom door.

"I'm going over to the other suite," he said, "to go over some things I've been neglecting. Will you all have dinner with me there later—say at 7?"

"Delighted," we told him in chorus, and then he was gone, and Dicky was looking at me with sudden gloom.

"I'll never be able to do my stuff properly with both you and him listening," he said.

At Dicky's plaint, Katharine rose, and walking over to him took him by the coat lapels as he rose with his usual courtesy, and shook him to and fro.

Budapest String Quartet To Play

That brilliant ensemble, the Budapest String Quartet, will present the second of the Peabody's Friday afternoon recitals this week at 4 o'clock.

The high reputation of this group goes back many years in European musical history, and though it has not always been possible to maintain an unchanged personnel, the standard has remained unimpeachable, and the group has innumerable admirers here.

The program for Friday consists of Haydn's D-minor quartet, and ends with the E-flat of Beethoven, known as the "Harp" quartet. The moderns will be represented by Paul Hindemith, outstanding radical among the German musicians banned during the Hitler regime. H. A. F. P.

Donna Answers Queries Of Readers

By DONNA GRACE

Dear Donna Grace:

Will you suggest a kind of suit I could wear now under a coat and later as a spring suit. I don't want black nor navy.

Mrs. Lise B.

Mrs. Lise B.: The small shepherd check in either black and white or brown and white will see you through the South and later for the spring.

MRS. K. H.: Have your little girl scrub her knees and ankles well with soap and water before going to bed, then rub on a soothing oil or cream.

GLORIA: Why not give your mother a pair of long suede gloves to wear with her new evening gown. Brown suede with gold sequins would be nice.

PHOEBE: Green-eye shadow will be more effective with your dark eyes. Black mascara and not brown.

The Marry-Go-Round

Take It From Eve

By Helen Rowland

"Woman's Man": One who never thinks of himself — and never forgets himself!

They used to laugh at you for getting fat, then they pitied you, now they blame you.

Warning a man against another woman is like telling junior not to try to get a preview of the Christmas toys in your closet. It merely fills him with curiosity and the irresistible desire to investigate.

The smaller a man's heart the greater the number of little romances and light love-affairs he seems to be able to pack into it.

No man can love a woman's cooking without feeling some little glow of tenderness for the cook.

All the snappy haberdashery and brilliant repartee in the world do not impress a girl these days as much as one gesture of gallantry.

So many hats, so many frocks,
So many styles that race and race—
When all in the world that a woman needs,
Is an ounce of brains and comely face.

A wolf's heart is like a punching bag. Almost anybody can start it "going"—but no girl can make an any lasting impression on it.

A woman is as young as she can make a man THINK she looks.

Here Comes Jeeter Lester To Ford's Once Again

By NORMAN CLARK

THERE WAS SOME talk, back there months ago, about "Tobacco Road" being put on the shelf. It had been seen almost everywhere, by almost everybody—and, well, there was no place else for it to go except the boneyard, as it were.

We knew at the time that this was just so much idle chatter; that Jeeter would be eating turnips and purpin' down soon at Ford's. Sure enough, here comes the old rascal for another visit. He'll be here all next week, beginning Monday night.

"Tobacco Road" has been before the public since December 4, 1933 and it has to its credit a run of eight years on Broadway. The first night audience in Manhattan sneered at it, while the critics snorted contemptuously. But as the eminent Garrett Cupp, its press agent this season, put it to us the other day in a learned dissertion:

"The critical merits of the play aside, whether good or bad, only a rancorous harridan or a disengaged acrobat would begrudge "Tobacco Road" the stentorian whoops and hip, hip, hurrahs it rates and no doubt will receive when the birthday wassil comes off next December 4.

"After all, any show with 12 uninterrupted years behind it and Heaven knows how many more years ahead of it, must have something, if only an obvious and rather blatant appeal to corporal pleasure. Whatever it is, "Tobacco Road" has more than enough."

"Tobacco Road" has made two tours of the South, taking its story of the penniless sharecroppers to Virginia, West Virginia, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee and to 14 other cities in Texas.

It has given employment to 127 actors and actresses, has paid out more than $200,000 in railroad fares, has been seen by 7,500,000 theatergoers and has grossed more than $6,500,000.

The cast this season is headed by John Barton as Jeeter, and includes Adelyn Woodington, Vinnie Phillips, George Shaw, William Becker, Jane McCloud, Nancy Hoadley, Edwin Walter, Lillian Ardell, Ashley Cooper and Robert Van Hooton.

'Spanish Main' Stays At Hipp

"The Spanish Main," RKO Radio's romance of buccaneer days, in Technicolor and starring Paul Henreid, Maureen O'Hara and Walter Slezak, begins its second week at the Hippodrome tomorrow.

Henreid plays a Dutch merchant captain whose vessel is seized and the crew sold into slavery by Walter Slezak, brutal Governor of New Spain. In revenge, the captain becomes a pirate and preys on Spanish shipping in the Caribbean.

2d Week For Hit At Century

"Week End at the Waldorf," starring Ginger Rogers, Walter Pidgeon, Lana Turner and Van Johnson, will start its second week at Loew's Century tomorrow.

Miss Rogers as the movie star, meets Pidgeon, the correspondent, under amusing circumstances, mistaking him for the jewel-thief boyfriend of her maid. At the same time Flier Johnson, wishing to make his will, finds in the stenographer, Miss Turner, his one hope to live from an operation.

Also in the cast are Edward Arnold, Robert Benchley, Keenan Wynn and Phyllis Thaxter.

Dead End Kids Now At Times

The Dead End Kids in "Come Out Fighting," is now being shown at the Times.

The Kids almost take a fade-out when the local gendarme closes their clubroom. The new police commissioner agrees to reopen the club of Leo Gorcey and his pals provided they take his somewhat sissified son, Johnny Duncan, into the organization.

On the same bill the Times also offers "Scotland Yard Investigator," a story of mystery and intrigue.

AT LITTLE

Anton Walbrook is the star of the English Technicolor film, "Colonel Blimp," which remains for another week at the Little.

Costarring with Walbrook are Deborah Kerr and Roger Livesey. The film tells a story of romance and high adventure covering a period of 40 years from the turn of the century until the present.

'People Are Funny'--Keiths

"People Are Funny," which opens at Keiths today, is a departure from the action type of screen drama identified with producers Bill Pine and Bill Thomas. In it, no one gets murdered, or even injured; there are no floods, avalanches or any other cataclysmic acts of nature. It's a musical comedy.

The cast is headed by Jack Haley, Rudy Vallee, Frances Langford, Helen Walker, Philip Reed, Ozzie Nelson, Bob Graham, Art Linkletter and the Four Vagabonds.

Walter Winchell On Broadway

The Big City

New York servicemen (just back from overseas) strolling along Tin Pan Lane and warming their fingers over familiar sights . . . Christmas frise festival of vivid hues celebrating the birth of a new day . . . Broadway's visual poetry punctuated by skyscraper exclamation points . . . The numbing surgery of a comely waitress' sharp glare cutting off a Romeo's . . . Cabbies bullying their way through traffic.

The furry wives of mink-coated first-nighters drowning a theater in luxury . . . Side-street hotels bruised with age, where misery goes to find company . . . Vain spotlight of their bragging tongues . . . Weary night-workers squatting on the masses' throne—a subway seat. Their cob-webbed orbs peer at each other as if they weren't there.

The well-heeled set pulling themselves up by their own booty . . . Salesgals tucking the frayed edges of their patience under a smile and pinning it with a dimple . . . The rainbow glint of jewelry . . . Mercy Lisa. Her diamonds are campaign stars . . . A deep, blue-eyed noon sky twinkling with sunshine, scarcely noticed by lunch-hourites.

Morning stripping the Big Alley of its sparkling fig leaves, while the sun exposes its nude ugliness . . . Shooting galleries recruiting customers by playing martial music . . . Dusk prowling about the horizon as The Street puts on its mazda apron and goes to work impressing passerby.

Professional mendicants who are skilled window-dressers of their sympathy display . . . Five ayem, when Broadway's raucous roar subsides into a comforting purr . . . The Saturday evening jubilee spree, when Neon Valley is packed to the brim with humanity attempting to smuggle a little amusement into their harried lives . . . Midtown's paralytic traffic snailing its way forward . . . Tin Pan Alley's jittery tempo striking up an overture for songwriters' insomnia.

'Too Young To Know,' Stanley

"Confidential Agent" will remain at the Stanley through Friday night and "Too Young to Know" will open there Saturday.

Adapted for the screen from a magazine story by Harlan Ware, "Too Young To Know" presents Joan Leslie as a young girl who falls head over heels in love with Robert Hutton, equally immature, equally irresponsible.

VALENTINO FILM ON ROSLYN'S BILL

Rudolph Valentino, screen lover of a generation ago, together with 1945-model screen Lotharios, Van Johnson, are featured at the Roslyn today.

Valentino appears in his last picture, "Son of the Sheik." Van Johnson stars in "Three Men in White," a comedy-romance drama, with a medical background.

Henry Fonda To Do Western For 20th Century-Fox

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
Motion Picture Editor
International News Service.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 28—Henry Fonda, who just walked out of a Twentieth Century-Fox contract, walks right back in again for "My Darling Clementine" with John Ford directing. The title is from an old song and will be a Technicolor Western.

The price of "Are You With It" has been upped to $300,000 and M.-G.-M. is willing to pay it for Gene Kelly. But the boys who wrote it, Sam Perrin and George Balzer, and Richard Kollmar, who produced it, are not in a hurry to dispose of their property, for it is a smash hit in New York.

Paulette Goddard is eager to go to Palestine to make a picture there with Burgess Meredith. Despite the dangerous political situation there she is talking with Henry Ginsberg about the feasibility of playing the romance of a Jewish girl.

Snapshots of Hollywood Collected at Random: Just received announcement that James Beck has been married to socialite Mary Ridgely Carter since October; the frost has set in for William Eythe and Margaret Whiting, who sang her way to fame with "It Might As Well Be Spring." A telephone conversation brought on the rift; Gene Raymond fell off his house and fractured seven ribs, but he believes he is lucky he didn't fracture his head; Mrs. Rudy Mate, wife of Rita Hayworth's cameraman, is very ill after losing her baby; speaking of Rita, that silly argument at the Mocambo was too bad, but no one blamed her; Writer-Director Milton Krims and his wife are talking divorce; Esther Williams was such a pretty bride. Tall as she is she looked like a little girl standing next to her six foot four bridegroom. They flew to Acapulca, but Ben had to cut his honeymoon short and return to a radio job. His grandmother, the cutest, brightest little old lady, was introduced to Lana Turner, who was at the reception with Bob Hutton. "What's the name?" queried grandma to whom the movies mean nothing. "Betty Hutton," replied Lana. Gene Kelly, in uniform, home on leave, was one of the first to kiss the bride. Kathryn Grayson, Sonny Tufts, Jane Wyman, Ronald Reagan and dozens of others of the younger set were at the reception. William Tracy, in uniform, told me Hal Roach has promised him a job when he gets out of service and said it was a great load off his mind to know he is all set. Malvina Humphries, bridesmaid, deserves a pat for the way she planned everything. That's all today. See you tomorrow!

"THE SPIDER" IS VALENCIA'S FILM

The first Baltimore showing of "The Spider," with Richard Conte and Faye Marlowe, will start tomorrow at Loew's Valencia. Conte portrays a suave, confident detective who accepts a dangerous assignment from the beautiful and mysterious Faye only to find himself on the accused end of a murder charge. Faye disappears along with a mysterious envelope. How Conte finds the girl and learns the secret of the envelope is the burden of the plot.

Maryland Books 'Gay Senorita'

The Latin-American singer and radio star, Corinna Mura, is appearing in Columbia Pictures' "The Gay Senorita," which features Jinx Falkenburg, Jim Bannon and Steve Cochran in the leading roles.

Miss Mura sings "Samba Lele" and "Buenas Noches" in the film and also accompanies herself on the guitar.

"The Gay Senorita" opens at the Maryland Saturday.

SHE'S HAPPY

Frances Rafferty's husband, Maj. John Horton, who was shipped overseas almost immediately after their marriage, is on his way home. The actress received word this week from Italy that he would be home for Christmas.

3d Week For Mayfair Film

Six-year-old Billy Severn, who plays an important role in "The Enchanted Forest," to stay for a third week at Mayfair, had a fifty-year-old stand-in during the making of this P. R. C. all-color drama. The stand-in was Johnny Bambury, ex-vaudeville performer, formerly with Singer's Midgets.

Featured with Billy in the new hit are Edmund Lowe, Brenda Joyce and Harry Davenport.

"DUFFY'S TAVERN" NEXT AT PARKWAY

"Duffy's Tavern," starring Ed Gardner (Archie), will start Saturday at Loew's Parkway.

The story concerns the shenanigans of that wise illiterate, Archie who takes over Duffy's Tavern, a sixth-rate high class joint on Third avenue, N. Y. while Duffy hies himself to the country on a vacation.
